Additional Information & Optional Pre- and Post- Orientation Events

Campus Tours – If you are interested in becoming familiar with your new home and want to get the inside scoop on how to navigate campus, join us for an optional campus tour. A special tour will be offered for Orientation participants who wish to partake from 2:00 – 2:50 p.m. The tour starts and ends at the Student Access & Success Center. If you are not able to be part of today’s tour, please note that campus tours are offered daily at 10:00am and 2:00pm.

Student Identification Cards (Mane Card) – Have you gotten your student ID card yet? If not, please stop by the Mane Card ID Center located on the first floor of the Sam Rayburn Student Center. This card is free and serves as your pass to athletic and campus life events. It is your membership card to the Library and the Morris Recreation Center and gives you access to your Lion Cash.

Parking Permits – Driving your car to campus? Then you will need an official UPD parking permit to legally park your car on University property. You may purchase your parking permit online through your MyLeo portal at <http://leo.tamu-commerce.edu> OR in person at the Cashier’s window from 8am-5pm Monday – Friday.

Residential Living & Learning – Have you found a place to live? Check out what on campus housing options are available to you through our Residential Living and Learning Department. You may access more information on your options, rates and an application online at www.tamu-commerce.edu/housing or stop by their office on the first floor of the Halladay Student Services Building.

Arabian Night – Enjoy your first campus life event! Join us for Arabian Night, sponsored by our Association of International Students. This fun-filled night will feature Arabian food, a live DJ and other surprises sure to expose you to the wonder of Arabian culture. This optional free event will be held in The Club of the Sam Rayburn Student Center from 7:30-11:30pm.
